'Once in a Generation' Event

Jubilee Drive Near

Drive to raise $410,000 for a new wing to Royal Jubilee Hospital by the end of April starts Monday with a breakfast meeting in the Empress Hotel.

Some 100 canvassers are expected to attend the meeting of the first eight divisions covering donations from corporations. This one deals specifically with advance gifts.

Other meetings will follow in the next few days on dates to be announced.

The public drive for donations from individuals in this area is expected to take place the latter part of next month.

Hospital administrator George Masters said the capital funds drive has no similarity to those yearly drives by agencies who depend on public support.

"This happens perhaps once in a generation," he said.

Hon. R. W. Mayhew will be chairman of the first rally on Monday. Divisional vice-chairmen are R. A. Pennington and Maj.-Gen. C. R. Stein.

Royal Jubilee Hospital must raise the $410,000 amount to qualify for grants amounting to more than $2,000,000 from federal, provincial and municipal governments.

The first French fort on the present site of Fort William, Ont., was built in 1678 by Daniel Du-Luth.

Widow, Mother In 24 Hours

WINNIPSG (CP)—A baby boy was born Tuesday to the widow of one of the two RCAF flying instructors killed Monday when their T-33 jet trainer crashed northwest of here.

Wife of FO G. S. Graham, 26, of Helensburgh, Scotland, gave birth to the child at St. Boniface Hospital before she was notified of her husband's death.

'I've Been Labor Man'

By The Canadian Press

Newfoundland, centre of one of Canada's bitterest labor disputes, has more union members for its population than any other province in Canada.

Almost every second member of the paid labor force belongs to a labor union. In Canada as a whole the proportion is only one in three.

Premier Smallwood, called a dictator by union leaders for trying to drive out the International Woodworkers of America (CLC) is a former labor organizer.

Labor Minister Charles Ballam, 58, is a former president of the Newfoundland Federation of Labor. He once worked in the Grand Falls paper mill of the Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company, centre of the current IWA loggers' strike. He also worked in the Bowater's mill at Corner Brook.

Paradoxically, while labor organizations in mainland Canada lined up almost solidly behind the IWA, Newfoundland unions split sharply. Some have openly denounced the strikers.

Premier Smallwood, now 58, helped organize a Corner Brook branch of the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers (CLC) about 30 years ago. The local opposes the premier's action against the IWA.

Mr. Smallwood once travelled across Newfoundland on foot organizing railway sectionmen.

"I've known unionism all my life," he says. "I've been a labor man. I know the tactics . . .

"The IWA came to Newfoundland . . . uninvited and proved relentless, unscrupulous. They muscled in by using Jimmy Hoffa traditions."

Mr. Ballam says, "I am backing the premier all the way—win, lose or draw."

Cheese Souffle

Cheese Souffle

½ lb. Kraft Canadian Pasteurized Process Cheddar Cheese
¼ cup butter or Kraft's Parkay Margarine
¼ cup flour
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of cayenne
6 eggs

Slice the cheese. Make a sauce with the butter or margarine, flour, milk and seasonings. When thickened and smooth add the sliced cheese, and stir until the cheese is melted. Remove from the heat and add the beaten yolks of the eggs; mix well. Slightly cool the mixture, then pour it slowly onto the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, cutting and folding the mixture thoroughly together. Pour into an ungreased 2-quart casserole. Run the tip of a teaspoon around in the mixture one inch in from the edge of the casserole, making a slight "track" or depression. This forms a "top hat" on the souffle as it bakes and puffs up. Bake 1½ hours in a slow oven, 300°. Serve at once.
